

Anjanette Milladge

Regional Director of Administration

202 775 1226

amilladge@sullivanlaw.com

Anjanette is the Regional Director of Administration for Sullivan & Worcester where she manages both the New York and Washington, D.C. offices. She brings her 30+ years of law firm experience when working with senior management to ensure the seamless operation of the firm's business areas.

In her role, Anjanette manages local office policies and employees and the budgeting process, develops crisis management and business continuity plans and increases employee engagement by executing change management initiatives on a local level. During her tenure, Anjanette has led all aspects of office management and facilities including capital projects, office administration, records, travel, conference services and business continuity operations for each of our offices in and outside of the U.S.

Anjanette is a member of the firm's Business Continuity Committee, Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Committee, Wellness Committee and Women's Initiative Steering Committee.

Education

- Northern Virginia Community College (A.S.)

Professional Qualifications

- Association of Legal Administrators
- Secretary, Association of Legal Administrators, Capital Chapter (ALACC), Foundation Board
- Society for HR Management