

Brian P. Hurley

Associate

617 338 2450

bhurley@sullivanlaw.com

Brian is a corporate associate in our Boston office. He represents both public and private clients in a range of corporate matters, including mergers and acquisitions, private investment fund formation, LP investments and secondaries transactions. He also represents public companies in securities law compliance, public offerings, general disclosure and periodic reporting and governance matters.

While at Boston College Law School, Brian was an editor for the UCC Reporter-Digest and also worked as a student attorney in the Civil Litigation Clinic, representing local tenants in landlord-tenant disputes. Prior to law school, he worked as a special education teacher for the Martha's Vineyard Public Schools. While in college, Brian served as the student manager for the Boston College Men's Hockey team.

Education

- Boston College Law School (J.D.)
- Boston College (B.A.)

Bar & Court Admissions

- Massachusetts

Community Engagement

- ACG Boston Accelerator program (2024)

Client Highlights

Biotech Focused On Developing Non-Opioid Therapeutics to Alleviate Pain Announced IPO

Sullivan was issuer's counsel for Chromocell Therapeutics Corporation, a clinical-stage biotech company focused on developing and commercializing new, non-opioid therapeutics to alleviate pain, in their $6.6 million initial public offering of common

Capabilities

- Corporate
- Capital Markets
- Fintech & Blockchain
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Private Equity

stock.

The Sullivan team was led by David Danovitch, director of the firm's Corporate Department, with partners Charles E. Chambers Jr., Aaron Schleicher and associate Brian Hurley. Sullivan has developed a strength in working with entrepreneurial biotech and tech companies in the U.S. and in Israel.

Viewpoints

February 1, 2022

SJC Rejects Contractual Liability Waivers for “Willful or Knowing” Violations of Chapter 93A

Sullivan Client Alert