

Christopher Cabot

Of Counsel

617 338 2918

ccabot@sullivanlaw.com

Chris' practice consists of corporate mergers and acquisitions, private equity and hedge fund formation, business capital structures and finance. He represents numerous corporations, partnerships and other entities in capital raising transactions, acquisitions, divestitures and restructurings. Chris also represents private equity and hedge fund sponsors and investors in fund formation and capital raising matters.

Education

- Vanderbilt Law School (J.D.)
- Harvard University (B.A., cum laude)

Bar & Court Admissions

- Massachusetts
- Tennessee

Professional Qualifications

- American Bar Association
- Boston Bar Association

Representative Client Work

- Represents public and private clients in domestic and cross-border mergers and acquisitions, asset dispositions and financings, refinancings and restructurings
- Represents private equity and hedge fund sponsors and investors in fund organization and formation, and in fund investment, financing and capital raising matters
- Represents private and public operating businesses in general business matters, including capital structures, equity and debt financings, intellectual property acquisition, protection and licensing, plant and project financings, manufacturing expansion and licensing, distribution arrangements, senior executive compensation and board of directors policies and practices

Capabilities

- Corporate
- Emerging Companies & Venture Capital
- Privately Held & Family Owned Businesses
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Private Equity
- Private Investment Funds & Institutional Investors