

Joseph E. Segilia

Partner

212 660 3027

jsegilia@sullivanlaw.com

Joe's practice focuses on corporate and securities matters, including mergers and acquisitions, securities laws and capital markets transactions. Prior to joining Sullivan, Joe was one of the first in-house counsels to a publicly-traded cannabis company. He advises clients with respect to ongoing corporate governance and disclosure matters, including compliance with Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requirements, stock exchange listing standards and Sarbanes-Oxley Act compliance.

Education

- New York University School of Law (J.D.)
- University College London (LL.M.)
- Luther College (B.A., magna cum laude)

Bar & Court Admissions

- New York
- United Kingdom

Professional Qualifications

- National Cannabis Industry Association's Banking and Financial Services Committee, 2024

Community Engagement

- Co-chair, Advisory Board, International Cannabis Bar Association (INCBA)

Viewpoints

August 3, 2026

SEC Stays Approval of Nasdaq's $5 Million MVLS Continued Listing Requirement Pending Commission Review

Capabilities

- Asia
- Cannabis
- Capital Markets
- Asia-Pacific Practice
- Corporate
- International & Cross-Border Finance
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Shareholder Activism, Hostile Transaction and Proxy Defense

February 19, 2026

Nasdaq Considers a New $5 Million Market Value Threshold for Continued Listing: What Issuers Need to Know

September 1, 2023

HHS Recommends Major Shift in the Legal Treatment of Cannabis

Sullivan Client Alert

June 20, 2023

Interstate Cannabis Markets Can Thrive by Using Commerce Clause

Bloomberg Law

May 12, 2023

Opinion: Residency Requirements for Marijuana Licenses at Odds with US Constitution

MjBizDaily