

Melissa Niles

Associate

617 338 2458

mniles@sullivanlaw.com

Melissa is a corporate associate in the Boston office. Melissa earned her J.D. at Northeastern University School of Law, where she served as the Combined Northern New England Sub-Regional Director of the Northeast Black Law Students Association, Co-Chair of the Black Law Students Association, as well as a member of the Intellectual Property Society, and the First Generation Law Students Association. Melissa received her B.A. in Government and Law from Lafayette College, where she was a Founding Member of the BIPOC Abolition Coalition and President of the Women of Color Association.

While at Northeastern, Melissa served as a Judicial Intern to the Honorable Angel Kelley, where she collaborated closely with law clerks to aid in preparation for hearings and researched legal issues to assist law clerks with preparation of recommendations.

Education

- Northeastern University School of Law (J.D.)
- Lafayette College (B.A.)

Bar & Court Admissions

- Massachusetts

Viewpoints

May 11, 2026

SEC Proposes Optional Semiannual Interim Reporting Framework

March 18, 2025

Massachusetts SJC Clarifies Law on Appellate Interest After Judgment Satisfied in Full Pending Appeal

Sullivan Client Alert

Capabilities

- Corporate

November 21, 2024

Governor Signs Economic Development and Clean Energy Bills: Key Insights