

Oriel Lavenda

Associate

+972 74 7580480

olavenda@sullivanlaw.co.il

Oriel is an associate in the Hi-Tech, Mergers & Acquisitions and Corporate Departments in Sullivan & Worcester's Tel Aviv office. He advises startups and established companies on a broad range of corporate and commercial matters, with a particular focus on cross-border transactions, including venture capital investments, financing transactions, and mergers and acquisitions.

Prior to joining the firm, Oriel worked at leading law firms, including an Israel-based firm in its corporate, finance and infrastructure departments, and a global firm where he was part of the global real estate, banking and finance, and energy practices.

Previously, Oriel served on the editorial board of the International Journal, Journal of Law, Religion, and State.

Education

- Bar Ilan University (LL.B., magna cum laude)

Bar & Court Admissions

- Israel

Languages

- English
- Hebrew

Capabilities

- Corporate
- Hi-Tech
- Israel Practice
- Mergers & Acquisitions