Stephanie is a member of Sullivan's Talent Development team. Stephanie works with associates across the firm to assist them with their professional growth and development. This includes helping with career development plans, staffing associates on projects, deals and assignments that will develop their skill set and ensuring all associates receive adequate evaluations and feedback during the firm's evaluation process. She assists with implementing trainings for all attorneys within the firm and also works closely with the firm's first-year associates.

Prior to joining Sullivan's Talent Development team in 2022, Stephanie was a member of the Real Estate Department from 2017-2022. Stephanie's Real Estate practice focused on transactional aspects of commercial real estate law, including acquisitions, dispositions, joint ventures and financing.
