Veronika focuses her practice on trade and commodity finance and emerging markets finance. She advises financial institutions, non-bank lenders, commodity producers and traders and other market participants on a broad range of finance transactions, including structured commodity finance, such as borrowing base and inventory financing, trade finance and receivables and supply chain finance, as well as on the restructuring of cross-border financings.

In 2024, Veronika was recognized as one of the outstanding women in the trade, treasury and payments industry by Trade Finance Global (TFG) in its annual Women in Trade, Treasury & Payments 2024 awards.

Before joining Sullivan, Veronika was the head of the commodity finance practice at another global law firm in London.
