

Yardenne Kagan

Associate

212 660 3030

ykagan@sullivanlaw.com

Yardenne, a corporate associate in New York, focuses on capital markets. Prior to joining Sullivan, she served as an International Consultant and a Project Officer at the International Trade Centre (ITC) a UN agency, where she provided policy research in the areas of cross-border investment, corporate governance, investment facilitation and digital economy.

Previously, as a fellow at the Columbia Center on Sustainable Investment, she focused her research on areas such as Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) best practice, laws and regulations, land use and agriculture, human rights and foreign direct investment. She also served as the Trade and Investment Policy Officer of Israel's Permanent Delegation to the OECD.

Education

- Columbia Law School (LL.M.)
- Tel Aviv University (LL.B.)

Bar & Court Admissions

- New York
- Israel

Languages

- Hebrew

Viewpoints

May 10, 2023

SEC Adopts Amendments to Share Repurchase Disclosure

Sullivan Client Alert

Capabilities

- Capital Markets
- Capital Markets - Israel
- Corporate
- Fintech & Blockchain