Yuval, an associate in Sullivan's Tel Aviv office, focuses on U.S. capital markets and corporate and securities law matters. He advises Israeli and international companies on public and private offerings, capital raises, SEC reporting and disclosure, ongoing regulatory compliance, and Nasdaq and NYSE listing matters.

Prior to joining Sullivan, Yuval served as a law clerk at the Office of the Deputy Attorney General (International Law) at Israel's Ministry of Justice, where he worked on international law matters, international agreements, proceedings before Israeli courts, international organizations and cross-border litigation involving Israeli officials. He also served as a judicial law clerk to the President of Israel's National Labor Court.

Yuval previously served as a research analyst in the Research Division of the Israel Defense Forces' Intelligence Directorate. He has also held a number of academic research assistant and teaching assistant positions, including as a research assistant at Georgetown University Law Center, where his work focused on U.S. export controls and economic sanctions. He also served as an LL.M. Advisor to the Georgetown Journal of International Law and as a Senior Content Editor and committee member of the Hebrew University's Hukim Law Journal.
